

URL <https://www.gapminder.org/>

Quick facts

-  Company: Gapminder
-  Sector: Government & Public
-  Product / service: Platform
-  Type of data: Health data, economic data, etc.
-  Origin: Sweden

Benefits

-  Gapminder is a service that allows users to visualise different types of data in various countries around the world, such as the child mortality rate vs. GDP in Nigeria, Egypt, Australia, Japan, Mexico and Germany.

How open data is used

-  Gapminder collects various types of data from countries around the world. For example, carbon dioxide emissions, child mortality, income, life expectation, malaria, forestry, water and literacy levels.
-  All of the data is available on gapminder for data visualisation.

Description

-  Gapminder is an independent Swedish foundation that aims to address misconceptions about global development. The foundation produces free teaching resources to assist users in understanding and have fun with statistics.